ALLIES HOLDING AGAINST GERMANS

OFFENSIVE RESOLVES ITSELF INTO SERIES OF LOCAL ACTIONS. MEET STUBBORN RE-SISTANCE EVERYWHERE.

(By the Associated Press)

The German offensive, in this the third day, no longer has the character of a general attack but has worked itself into a series of comparatively local operations. The offensive encountered a defense sufficiently stubborn to prevent the attainment of its immediate objectives, thus it has now taken on the general aspect of a turning movement against the Rheims salient. In the region of Dormans and along the Marne the Germans have penetrated about five miles, now holding both river banks for fourteen miles. Strong repeated attempts to enlarge these gains have failed and their troops along the Marne are in a dangerous position should an allied counter attack begin. Formidable German attempts to break the main French line at Prunay, eight miles east of Rheims, have been broken up by stubborn resistance along the Vesle river.

On the Italian mountain front the Italians took nearly 100 Austrian prisoners near Montegrappa.

The French advance up Devoli valley, eastern Albania, continues and three more villages have been taken from Austrians.

Germans Advance Six Miles.

London, July 17.—Forces of the German crown prince advanced another three miles down the Marne valley yesterday making a total penetration of about six miles at Fesitgny, the most southern point reached.

French Lines Holding.

On the French front in France, July 17.—Forty-eight hours sufficed for the holding of the German crown prince's offensive launched Monday. Enemy units which were turned back from the direction of Paris and are endeavoring to ascend the Marne are being held in check by French troops. Comparatively slight progress has been made by the enemy west of Rheims.

French Hold Fresh German Forces.

Paris, July 17.—The Germans last night threw new forces into the battle on the Marne and attacked north of Stagnan, the war office announces. The enemy penetrated to Bourdonnerie, the battle continuing to the south at this point. Further east the French held the enemy in the southern outskirts of Bouquiny wood and Nesles village. The Germans progressed in the direction of Monvoisin by a powerful attack but later were driven back. To the east of Rheims the enemy delivered local attacks which were fruitless. The Germans suffered sanguinary repulse in a renewed assault on Beaumont. The French positions throughout the region of Rheims were maintained intact.

Germans Lose 100,000

London, July 17.—Casualties sustained by the Germans in the offensive up to the present are estimated to number 100,000, according to news received here today from the battle front in France.

(By the Associated Press)

Paris, July 17.—(Havas Agency)—M. Duval, director of the Germanophile newspaper Bonnet Rouge, was executed today for treasonable action against the French government. Duval's execution is the second growing out of German propaganda in France, the first being Bolo Pasha.

FASHIONABLE SNAKES.

The snakes in the zoo were wiggling with excitement, for many of them were about to change their skins, and out in the country a great many of their cousins were doing the same thing.

When snakes are wild they go to sleep for the winter. In the zoo they nap and sleep a great deal, but not for the whole winter through—that is because they are fed regularly and are kept so warm.

Now, Mrs. Sally Snake lived in the country, and she had been asleep for the winter. She stretched herself with a wiggle and said: "Oh, I am hungry!
Now I'll have a fine meal for the first time in three months."

There are many snakes who only eat every three months, and after each meal they take a nap. The naps of other snakes are good and long, too.
"And after I've eaten," said Mrs. Sally Snake, "I'll sleep. Ah, what joy those very words bring to my snake heart—sleep and eat, sleep and eat," and Mrs. Sally Snake hissed them over and over again.

It was not long after this that Mrs.
Sally Snake said: "It's high time for

"We Must Be Fashionable," Said Mrs.
Garter Snake.

me to have a new skin or a new suit.
All folks want new suits in the springtime and most certainly a snake will not be behind in the fashions."

"Most certainly not," the other snakes hissed. "We must be fashionable at all costs," Mrs. Garter Snake said.

"Why do you say at all costs?" asked Mrs. Sally Snake. "One would think that we couldn't afford new suits. Indeed I can always afford one when I need one."

"I said that we must have them at all costs," replied Mrs. Garter Snake.
"As I've heard people walking and talking. And their talking has been important. They have said: 'Oh dear me, dear me, I feel so poor, and yet I must have a new dress. I'll have one at all costs.'"

"So I imagined," continued Mrs. Garter Snake, "that we should pretend we were poor and yet that we must get new suits."

"My dear," said Mrs. Sally Snake,
"it is very foolish to talk that way,
and I don't admire anyone who does.
If a creature is poor and can't afford a new suit, I admire her, or him, for going without one. But if a creature isn't poor and is simply talking that way—then I call it very absurd, and I just wish they could go blind for a little while and really suffer for new things as we do."

"You say in one breath that we don't get our suits at all costs, and in the next you say how we suffer for them," said Mrs. Garter Snake.

"Well, if folks are going to grumble
I can," said Mrs. Sally Snake.

"You just said that you didn't admire them when they did grumble.
Why copy something you don't admire?"

"True," said Mrs. Sally Snake. "It's strange how often we copy what we don't like to see. It's just like saying: 'I hate to gossip about my neighbors.
I don't like Mrs. Green Snake because she does.' And then to go on talking about Mrs. Green Snake for talking to others! It's the same thing, exactly, and I must be careful not to do what I don't like or admire."

But in a way the snakes do suffer for their new skins, for they get almost entirely blind while the new skin is growing under the old one.

A queer blue film comes over their eyes and they can scarcely see at all.
But they are quite willing to put up with such things for the sake of new skins.

"Did you hear what Mrs. Milk Snake was supposed to have eaten for breakfast?" asked Mrs. Red Spotted Snake.
"No!" they all exclaimed. They knew that Mrs. Milk Snake was liable to eat anything and that she was very proud of her enormous appetite.

"She ate a pig that weighed sixty pounds!" answered Mrs. Red Spotted Snake.

"Fancy that!" all the snakes hissed.

"Well, she has to change her skin often," Mrs. Sally Snake added.

For the bigger the eater the sooner will a snake need a new skin, for they actually grow out of their old skins and have to have new ones. It's just the way children grow out of their clothes, and the more they eat and the healthier they are the more they grow!

It is doubtful if there is a street in the world that has a stranger name than one in Hull, England. It is called "Land of Green Ginger."

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Cardui Has Done For Me, So
As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly. Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then it would last ... two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three. I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children.
Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years.
Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

NOTICE SUGAR RETAIL- ERS AND CONSUMERS

Due to some confusion that seems to exist regarding the sugar statements sent out by the State Food Administrator requiring retailers, public eating places, (where twenty-five or more persons eat daily) etc., to show their sugar requirements for the present quarter (July, August and September), I have just received the following from Mr. Ames:

1. Statements have been mailed from Oklahoma City office to all handlers of sugar requiring certificates, according to mailing list on file in Oklahoma City.

2. If these statements have been filled out properly and returned, certificates have been mailed accordingly.

3. We are unable to issue certificates on a great many statements, due to the fact that they are either illegible, have not been made out properly or the name of the dealer's town has been left off. Due to the tremendous amount of work in connection with issuing these certificates all such statements have been laid aside for future attention.

4. We have thousands of letters requesting statements. The writers of many of these have already sent in statements and certificates have been mailed them.

5. In view of the fact that certificates have been issued to cover statements received, we cannot authorize any further deliveries without certificates. Permission to do this expired July 10th.

6. The allotment for Oklahoma is based on three (3) pounds per capita per month, this allotment being based on an equitable distribution for all states and cannot be increased.

7. A new retail store not having handled sugar prior to July 1st will not be permitted to do so now.

8. If there remain some merchants and public eating places who have not received statements, application should be made promptly to Mr. C. B. Ames, Federal Food Administrator, Oklahoma City and they will be sent promptly.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

SCOUTS HUNT BLACK WALNUT

In making a census of black walnut trees the Boy Scouts of America have a new task set by the President.

"This work will appeal especially to scouts, not only as an important and patriotic activity, but also as a live, interesting, outdoor job, which links itself with many phases of scouting.

The government needs black walnut.
In fact, black walnut wood is a prime necessity for the prosecution of our war program of guns and aircraft.

At this moment the entire black walnut growth of our forests is subject to census classification for war purposes.
In behalf of the war department, boy scouts are asked to undertake this black walnut census.

It is desired to locate immediately all available standing black walnut timber wherever it occurs, isolated or in small groups as well as in larger lots.

It is important that every tree of this species be located and placed on record with details as to its size and availability, together with the owner's name and address, and such other data as is essential in providing the information required by the government.

This information data, as collected by scouts, will be tabulated by the forest service of the department of agriculture and placed at the disposal of the government. The government does not ask for old black walnut furniture, but only the timber.

OUR ALLIES AT HOME.

Boy scouts are doing wonderful service in aiding Uncle Sam in connection with the war.

FRENCH BOY SCOUTS BRAVE.

A letter to Chief Scout Executive James E. West from Corporal W. F.
Rates, Jr., with the American expeditionary forces in France, indicates the boy scouts the world around are very much the same:

"Yesterday while on the road, I met a party of French boy scouts with whom I had a little chat. They even shared with me some little biscuits which they had for lunch.

"Hiking back to their much-bombarded town in the rain, they made a decided impression and a very happy one, for I imagined myself back again for the moment with my own lads of Troop No. 5 of Oil City, Pa.

"Some time I hope to take up the work again, with my boys in God's country. Until then it is good to remember the happy days I have had back home in camp and on the hike."

WHAT THE SCOUT PLAN IS.

As a scout the boy willingly adopts as real and vital the universally accepted principles of life as set forth in the scout oath and law. This effectively influences the boy's nature and character so as better to prepare him for that work which the church can best do.

A scout promises that upon his honor he will do his duty to God and country and obey the scout law; that he will help other people at all times and that he will keep himself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

The scout law, covering the twelve fundamental principles, requires a scout first of all to be trustworthy.
That means that he must not tell a lie, cheat or deceive, but keep every trust sacred. A scout is loyal to all to whom loyalty is due, including his scout leader, his home, his parents and his country. Furthermore, a scout is helpful, prepared at all times to save life, help injured persons and do at least one good turn daily.

The boy scout movement healthfully and safely offsets the disadvantages which civilization has caused.

It insures good citizenship.

When You Choose Your Phonograph

don't let prejudice in favor of any certain make or against any other makes stand in the way of your making a wise choice.

Every dealer will tell you that his particular phonograph or talking machine has the best "tone," the greatest artists, the handsomest cabinets, the best motor, the best reproducer, or any number of other things. We tell you that

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Re-creates the human voice and the music of human-played instruments with such fidelity that the actual voices and instruments cannot be distinguished from the New Edison's Re-Creation of them, but you will never fully believe what any dealer tells you when they make conflicting statements.

The wise way to choose your phonograph is to let all claims pass in one ear and out the other, then have the several makes of phonographs and talking machines in which you are interested sent to your home on trial, where you may make direct comparisons among them in the quiet of your own home and decide which one you would like to keep—which one you think you would enjoy hearing just as much five years from now as you do today.

Be your own salesman. Hear all makes of phonographs and talking machines sold in your community, in your own home.
Then decide.

We will gladly send a New Edison to your home

Kansas Wheat Crop.

(By the Associated Press)
Topeka, Kans., July 17.—President W. M. Jardine of the Kansas State Agricultural college in a report to the State Council of Defense at its quarterly meeting here declared that Kansas is producing one-tenth of the wheat raised in the entire country.

President Jardine estimated the Kansas yield at 92,000,000 bushels and the national yield at 900,000,000 bushels, winter and spring wheat combined.

A seed survey by the college last spring, participated in by ninety-seven counties served to increase production, President Jardine said. The college has developed 20,000 bushels of wheat of high production strain to be used in fall planting.

Your liberality in buying War Savings Stamps indicate that you are helping the boys "over there" on to Berlin.

Sugar probably will be plentiful next winter but the patriotic duty of every housewife is to conserve as much as possible now, while the shortage is felt so badly, by using no sugar in canning fruit.

Government bulletins point out that it is not an impossibility to do without sugar in canning. In fact, it appears that sugar is not all necessary to the operation. Fruits and vegetables will keep just as well if hot water is used instead of sugar syrup. It is suggested that when winter comes, and there is plenty of sugar, the canned goods may be reheated and the sweetening added.

Fruit juices may be bottled without sugar.

Corn syrup may be used for making preserves and thus one of the chief drains on the sugar supply may be stopped. The Food Administration urges that all heavy sugar syrrups be omitted by the canner and

NEW PAY SYSTEM FOR ARMY IS PROPOSED

With the American Armies in France, July 17.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Every American soldier in France will receive a "bank book" enabling him to draw $7.50 a month from any disbursing officer, if the change in pay methods of the American Expeditionary Force now under consideration is put into effect. The purpose is to enable every soldier to obtain prompt ly at least a part of his monthly pay regardless of where he may be, whether in a hospital or with some organization other than his own. The "pay book" system is in use in the British army. The sum of $7.50 a month has been fixed as the minimum which a soldier should have for his personal wants every month and it would be given to him on his demand.

Each three or four months there would be a general accounting, at which his total pay, his insurance and other allotments, his liberty loan subscriptions and other items would be cast up, together with his monthly drafts. The balance then due him would be put at his disposal.

The soldier would have the advantage of being able at all times and under all circumstances to draw something from any quartermaster in whose district he might find himself.

The proposed system would eliminate the present necessity of having on hand each soldier's service record whenever he draws any money. The service record system, designed for times of peace, does not take into account the frequent shifts which all military men must be prepared for. In many instances nowadays it works hardships on individual men who are transferred faster than their service records can follow them and who consequently cannot draw their money when it is due, merely because the formalities must be complied with.

The proposed new system appeals as specially advantageous for camps where there are constantly large numbers of "casuals"—guys belonging to dozens and scores of organizations waiting to join their outfits yet unable to draw what money is due them until the service records have caught up to them.

RE-CLASSIFICATION OF REGISTRANTS

To the Public:

Much discussion and some unmerited criticism has been given to the work of the Local Board of Exemptions apropos the re-classification of the 121K registrants, and the following information is given for the public relative to said work:

On May 23, 1918, order No. 4, C. S. S. R. was issued by the Provost Marshall General, for the re-classification of all registrants with regards to the occupation they are now following. Certain occupations and employments were designated by the War Department as "non-productive" and if any registrant was found to be engaged in any of them, or idle, he is to be advanced to Class I, regardless of his previous classification. These non-productive occupations as designated by the War Department are as follows:

(a) The serving of food and drinks, or either, in public places, including hotels and social clubs.

(b) Passenger elevators operators, and attendants; coormen, footmen, carriage openers and other attendants in clubs, hotels, stores, apartment houses, office buildings, and bath houses.

(c) Persons, including ushers and other attendants, engaged and occupied in and in connection with games, sports and amusements, excepting actual performers in legitimate concert, operas or theatrical performances.

(d) Persons employed in domestic service.

(e) Sales clerks and other clerks employed in stores and other mercantile establishments.

On June 22, 1918, all local boards received the following further explanation and discussion of the above classifications as follows:

"5. Paragraph E F Sec. 121K does not include store executives, managers, superintendents, nor the heads of such departments as accounting, financial, advertising, credit, purchasing, delivery, receiving, shipping and other departments; does not include registered pharmacists, employed in wholesale or retail drug stores, travelling salesmen, buyers, delivery drivers, electricians, engineers, carpet layers, upholsters, nor any employees doing heavy work outside the usual duties of clerks."

"6. The words 'sales clerks' do include the clerical force in the office and in all department of stores and mercantile establishments."

In the Regulations issued May 23, 1918, the following section is found: "Section 121K. Reasonable Excuse for Idleness or Non-Productive Employment."

"Local Boards must consider cases of withdrawal of deferred classification and late order numbers with SYMPATHY and COMMON SENSE. The designation and definition of non-productive occupations and employments contained in the foregoing section 121K, may be extended by regulation from time to time as necessary may require so as to include persons in other occupations or employments, but for the present and until such extension by regulation, NO OCCUPATION or employment NOT INCLUDED in the list or description of occupation or employments in the foregoing section 121K may be held by any local board or district board to be a non-productive occupation or employment unless a ruling as to whether or not a doubtful occupation or employment is to be considered as non-productive is first obtained from the Provost Marshall General in the manner prescribed by Section 25."

"The following grounds shall be accepted by local boards and district boards as reasonable excuse for temporary idleness or for being engaged in a non-productive occupation or employment:

(a) Sickness.

(b) Reasonable vacation.

(c) Lack of reasonable opportunity for employment in any productive occupation or employment as designated above.

(d) Temporary absence from regular work (not regular vacation) not to exceed one week, unless such temporary absences are habitual and frequent.

(e) Where there are compelling domestic circumstances that would not permit change of employment by the registrant without disproportionate hardships to his dependent, or when such change of employment would necessitate the night employment of women under circumstances deemed by the Boards unsuitable for such employment of women."

Uncle Sam needs soldiers, and it is the business of the Local Boards to get them; but the Local Board is no Inquisition Court, as we understand it. Out of 2000 registrants, whose questionnaires we have again gone over, we have changed only about 150 A-1, and these cases are to be finally passed upon by District Board No. 2 at Tulsa. There may be others in the county who should be advanced to A-1, but so far we have not sufficient information to make the change. If you know of anyone falling in the list of "non-productives" it is your duty to notify us in writing. Please help us to see that every registrant gets a square deal, for rich or poor, he is entitled to it. LOCAL BOARD PONTOTOC COUNTY, OKLAHOMA.

Havre, July 17.—The Germans not only have tried every imaginable method of controlling and subjugating the Belgian press, such as requisitioning all paper supplies from newspapers that would not do their bidding, but have now requisitioned the presses, typesets and machinery of Le Patriote. PRIZES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB MEMBERS Eighteen big breeders of registered cattle and swine have given animals from their herds to be included in the list of prizes to be awarded at the A. & M. Farmers Summer Short Course which convenes for a week's session at Stillwater on July 23, and every man and member of the Boys and Girls Farm Clubs have a chance to win one of them.

Seven bulls from the best herds of the state, will be awarded, one to each county in the seven districts having the largest attendance at the Short Course.

All members of the Boys and Girls Clubs will be given an opportunity to ship back home either a registered Hereford heifer, or registered gilt, besides each club in the seven districts having the largest number of members at Stillwater during the session will be awarded a fine registered boar.

The number of those who attend will be multiplied by the number of miles traveled so that those from every locality will have an equal show. The county agent is familiar with all particulars.

Frank M. Gault, president of the state board of agriculture, is giving the grand prize—a registered Hereford bull—to the county agent of the county having the largest representation at Stillwater during the session, and M. C. Bogle, a registered Holstein heifer to the county agent the greatest number of members of the Boys and Girls Clubs attended.

Other prize animals are from the herds of F. A. Gillespie, Tulsa; L. R. Kershaw, Muskogee; H. C. Lookabaugh, Watonga; J. J. Simpson, Eufaula; Commercial Land Company, Muskogee; H. P. Hodgen & Son, Enid; A. L. Churchill, Vinita; and J. R. Whistler, Watonga. Walter F. Scivally, Ardmore, is giving a registered heifer as a Boys and Girls Club prize.

The Swine Breeders who are giving registered gilts and boars to be awarded to members of the Boys and Girls Clubs are McCord Bros., Pauls Valley; W. A. Williams, Marlow; Finerty Farms, Oklahoma City; R. A. Welch, Red Oak; J. R. Breed, Hydro; F. J. Foster, Elk City; A. & M. College and John Whitehurst, Dextey, who gives a free for all registered Duroc Jersey Gilt.

"We are trusting that every man, woman and child in the state will find it convenient to visit the College during the short course," said Frank Gault, who arranged the prize contests, "and feel that the move will mean greater and better live stock, greater wealth for the individual and greater food production for the nation. All are cordially invited to attend—even for a single day."

Advised by Friends to Try Vinol—What It Did for Her.

Florence, S. C.—"I was in a weak, nervous, run-down condition, took cold easily, could hardly keep around and do my work—and was all discouraged. I had taken cough syrups and tonics without benefit, until a friend asked me to try Vinol—I gained rapidly by its use, so I am now in good health."—Mrs. Addie Wilkerson.

The reason Vinol was so successful in restoring Mrs. Wilkerson to health, is because it is a constitutional remedy, which enriches and revitalizes the blood and creates strength. —Gwin & Mays Co., and Druggists everywhere.

Britain's Pension Bill.

(By the Associated Press)

London, July 17.—Great Britain will have to pay $250,000,000 a year in pensions if the war ends by next March, according to an estimate made by A. Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Sir Alfred W. Watson, a government actuary estimates that, by 1930, the annual pension charges will have fallen to $200,000,000 and that each succeeding decade will show a reduction of $50,000,000 but that these pensions will not have entirely disappeared by 1970.

15,000 cases of war disabled soldiers are reported each week to the Minister of Pensions. The total number of disabled British men on the list is now placed at 341,025 of which 28 per cent were cases of injury to the eyes or loss of sight resulting from wounds.

Small industrial and memorial villages for disabled soldiers and sailors are being established in different parts of Great Britain. At one of these near Moreton, Dorset, ten acres have been laid out as a market garden and houses are to be erected for the wounded men.

MOTORMAN NOT LOSING ANY TIME

"I don't think anyone ever suffered more from stomach trouble and bloating than I have. I had to lay off my run more than half the time and could get no help from prescriptions of medicine. One of my friends advised using Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which I found to be the greatest remedy ever put on the earth. I have not lost a day since taking it. It is worth its weight in gold. It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., and Druggists Everywhere.

THUMB NAIL SKETCH OF GEN. PERSHING

(By the Associated Press)
El Paso, Tex., July 17.—Americans who accompanied General Pershing to Mexico in the various civilian capacities never tire of talking of the little sidelights on the character of the general commanding the American forces in France, as shown to them while he was in the desert of western Chihuahua.

"I saw a better character sketch of General Pershing than any of the writers can picture," said one cattleman here. "He squatted in front of a camp fire at San Geronimo, frying his hard-tack in the bacon grease of his mess pan, with the wind blowing sand into his face and food and the general grinning good naturedly all the time as one of our cowpuncher scouts spun a yarn about a buffalo hunt he was on in the Little Canadian up in the Panhandle."

These men tell many incidents of General Pershing's stay on the border and in Mexico as illustrations of his regard for his men and for the service.

On an inspection trip from Namiquipa to Colonia Dublan he saw a mule driver beating his team because they would not pull an overloaded wagon out of a rut. Jumping from his automobile, General Pershing lectured the mule driver, forced him to lighten the load; deftly swung the team around and drove the wagon on to the high road.

Again he reprimanded a colonel who forced his men to march all day with a 60 pound field pack when empty motor trucks were passing all day en route to the same destination. "An American soldier will fight harder, live on less food and accept more hardships than any other soldier in the world," General Pershing said, in commenting upon the incident. "But he can see no reason why his pack should not be hauled in empty trucks if trucks are passing. Neither do I."

A camp sutler at Colonia Dublan smuggled in an automobile load of bad whiskey. After disposing of his stock, the man appeared at General Pershing's headquarters to ask for a pass back to the border. He got the pass as a free ride as a prisoner and was forced to dig latrines and repair roads en route.

The announcement that General Pershing had adopted two French orphans recalled a flood of tender memories to friends of General Pershing on the border for it was while he was in command here that his wife and two children were burned to death at the Presidio in San Francisco. General Pershing's hair, a chestnut brown, slowly turned to gray after his loss and he could be seen frequently riding on the mesa beyond Fort Bliss alone with his great grief.

Surprise Party for Pastor.
On last Saturday evening a most enjoyable surprise was given Elder C. B. James and family by the congregation of the First Christian church. Bro. James and family were invited out for a drive in the evening and when they returned at 9:15 the lawn was filled with people and the dining room had the appearance of a general merchandise store on moving day. There was everything from money up to chickens, but best of all was that spirit of brotherly love and good fellowship which prevailed. After Bro. James and wife had inspected the store we returned to the lawn where Mr. Perkins, as master of ceremonies made a few very appropriate remarks regarding the occasion, which was the fifth anniversary of Bro. James' pastorate of this church. He was followed by Mr. Holt, Mr. Sears and Mr. Cunningham who expressed their appreciation and the appreciation of the entire membership of the work done by Bro. James in the past five years and pledged anew their help in every way to make the coming year the most successful one this church has ever known. Bro. James, then in his most pleasing manner, expressed the thanks of himself and family for the substantial remembrances and for the co-operation promised in all departments of the church work for the coming year. Then on Sunday the church was nicely decorated for the special services of both morning and evening. At the morning service there were two additions, making twelve in two weeks. At night a special song service of 40 minutes and a short, but impressive sermon by the pastor was listened to by a large audience. We are starting our year's work with added zeal and expect much good to result from our united efforts. REPORTER.

Kerensky's Last Moment of Power.
There was nothing in the situation that night that augured well for Kerensky's government. He was like a man poised on a tight rope. The cry, "All power to the Soviet," grew louder and more insistent with every passing hour. The Russian workers, the youngest proletarian group in the world, were the most class-conscious and determined, and they had guns. The fleet was Bolshevik. Every report from the front indicated that the men in the trenches had swung further and further to the left. The land and peace hunger clamored for immediate satisfaction, says Bessie Beatty in "Asia".

Kerensky, trying like the true Democrat he was to please everyone, succeeded in pleasing no one. He had lost touch with the masses. Attacked from above and below, from within and without, there seemed little hope for him. Those who should have been behind him with every energy and influence they possessed, were secretly willing his downfall, and some of them plotting to bring it about. Dark forces of the old order were working with German intrigues to augment the chaos, and above and beyond and beneath everything was the honest cry to the people for "Peace to the world!" and "Land to the peasants!" They were dreaming big dreams in Russia that night; scheming big schemes; and they were not unaware that the dreams and schemes would be used in the future by the rest of the world, perhaps as patterns by which to model, perhaps only as horrible examples and tragic warnings. It was an hour in which one needed all of one's faith to believe that the human march is forward; no matter how many members of the family are lost on the way.

HISTORY CLASS GIVES DRAMA OF GREAT WAR

This morning Prof. Sears' history class at the normal, by special request, repeated the dramatization of the European war given sometime ago. Each student represented some nation and going back to the remote causes of various wars and diplomatic maneuvers came on down to the present conflict. This gave a clear insight into every move and made plain the intricate events, making the entire subject easy to understand.

Foch's Daring Maneuver.
Major Requin of the French General Staff describes (in the World's Work for July) the unprecedented maneuver by which General Foch won the battle of the Marne. He says: "All the reserves were engaged. The right of the army had only been halted by the strongest injunctions of Foch, and all was in a state of insecure equilibrium, which the redoubled efforts of the enemy threatened to disturb."

Almost any other commander would have admitted himself beaten. On the evening of May 8 I was ordered by him to carry to the Tenth Army Corps—right corps of the neighboring army, which was placed under his authority for the morrow the command to relieve the Forty-second Division and to the Forty-Second Division the command to come and place itself facing east at the front of the Ruisseau la Superba—and to attack at 2 p. m. the right flank of the enemy who already thought themselves victorious.

"This maneuver was more than daring. To any less exalted spirit than Foch it appeared impossible, so difficult was it in the midst of such a battle to withdraw from the combat a division entirely engaged, make it cover a march back of the army front and execute an attack whose decision could be forestalled, all in one day. But Foch had made this simple but disconcerting reasoning at once."

"By pushing back the right wing of his army, the enemy had presented one flank. It was into this flank that the Forty-second Division would be thrown to determine the victory."

"The following day, the 10th, the enemy was in full retreat all along the front."

LIBERTY
Quest of fame brought Marcia Calhoun to the brink of social oblivion, but when despair and disgrace seem to engulf the girl that set out to achieve a career with the highest motives, but with no worldly preparation for the pitfalls of life, a wonderful blessing befell her and gave her back her soul.

That, in short, is the story of the most gripping film play, "Her Price," at the Liberty Theatre today, and in it Virginia Pearson accomplishes what is probably the most artistic work of her screen career.

MURRELL MATTHEWS SAVES LIFE OF DROWNING GIRL
Saturday while a part of young people were bathing at Sulphur, a young lad, of that place becoming exhausted was on the point of drowning. Murrell Matthews, of Ada, who chanced to be looking on, sprang to the rescue and brought her to safety.

GET SUGAR. GET IN JAIL

Persons who violate sugar rules are meeting with grief in Oklahoma. Two men, Jack Lofton and Aaron Dillard, spent three days in jail at Okfuskee as a result of alleged infractions of the food administration regulations.

Lofton is said to have used assumed names to obtain more sugar than he was allowed and Dillard is declared to have misrepresented the number of persons in his family to obtain more sugar than he was entitled.

After spending three days in jail they were released with a reprimand and told that any more infractions of the rules would bring severe punishment.

VEGETABLE HINTS

Try steaming vegetables instead of boiling them.

Soak wilted vegetables in cold water until they are crisp and fresh.

Soak celery and cabbage for 15 or 20 minutes before using so that any insects or worms will come out.

The French like peas cooked in lettuce leaves in the top of a double boiler or laid in lettuce leaves in the top of a strainer. Sometimes, too, they add a parsley leaf or a mint leaf to peas in the cooking to give them flavor, but the plain flavor of well cooked green peas is very pleasing without any additions.

Cook beets, carrots and parsnips before peeling. The skin comes off after cooking in a very economical and easy way.

Potatoes, too, may well be cooked in their jackets.

To remove the skins of tomatoes, dip them into a pan of boiling water, then chill. The skins can then be easily removed.

If you boil your vegetables, never throw away the water in which they were cooked. It contains valuable material. Use it as the basis of a soup.

Radishes, red or white, when a little too old to be eaten raw, may be cooked like turnips and served.

MOSER'S DEPARTMENT STORE

CIVILIANS MAY BECOME OFFICERS

Oklahoma City, Okla., July 17.—(Special).—Oklahoma civilians are now eligible for admission to Camp Pike, near Little Rock, Ark., which is one of the five central Officers' Training Camps which have been established by the War Department at which civilians and enlisted men will be trained for commissions in the Officers' Reserve Corps. The course of training will be for four months at the Infantry and machine gun schools, and about three months at the field artillery school. These are to be run continuously, and new classes are to be entered each month. To be eligible for admission to a central training school, candidates, either civilians or enlisted men, must be between the ages of 20 years and 30 months and 40 years; must be citizens of the United States and not have been born in any of the countries with which the United States is at war or allies of such countries. Enlisted men must have the moral, educational, and physical qualifications required of an officer. Civilians must be graduates of a high school or have pursued an equivalent course of instruction; must be of good moral character; and must have the physical qualifications required for a commission in the officers' reserve corps. Civilians in Oklahoma possessing the requisite qualifications as to education, character and physique, who desire to attend an officers' training school, will apply for information and necessary blank forms to the professor of military science and tactics, A. M. college, Stillwater, Oklahoma. This may be done either in person or in writing. The application must be filled out in detail and must be accompanied by at least three testimonials by reputable persons as to good character, and a record of the physical examination of the applicant, submitted on prescribed form and made by a reputable physician.

Prolific Family.

(By the Associated Press)
Chicago, July 17.—Timothy J. Murphy, a freight handler, is the father of 21 children, 18 of whom are living. And the 18 are engaged in war work.

Eight sons, all of them six feet or more tall, and the lightest one weighing 203 pounds, are in military service and the ten daughters are engaged in Red Cross and other kinds of war work.

"Mother's maiden name was Mary A. O'Connor, and she was born on Capitol Hill in Washington, D. C.," said Private Thomas J. Murphy, stationed at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill. "Mother played about the capitol yard when a child. Maybe we inherited some of our patriotism."

The brothers are Major Michael J., who has been a surgeon in the regular army since the Spanish-American war, Timothy J., Daniel, Albert, Edward C., Thomas J., Cornelius T., and Richard W.

Major Michael J. Murphy is in the medical department of the regulars and is believed to be in France. Two other brothers also are believed to be in France.

"The war hit us all square in the nose and we couldn't get in fast enough," said Private Murphy.

W. S. S. Sales Increase.

Muskogee, Okla., July 17, 1918.—Sales of War Savings Stamps in Oklahoma have increased materially in the past month, according to reports from sales agencies throughout the state. This favorable indication is due largely, the Oklahoma War Savings Committee asserts, to the increased activity culminating in signed pledges on June 28th. Oklahoma, however, is still behind in its quota of pledges, only forty-one million of the forty-seven million having been subscribed.

The committee is receiving more favorable reports from those counties which failed to make the quota on June 28th. Many persons who were not reached on that day have since sent in pledge cards. In many counties the campaign is going on slowly and thousands of dollars in pledges have been obtained since June 28th. Complete reports will not be available for several days.

Original pledge cards will be placed in the vault in the state headquarters at Muskogee and as persons redeem their obligation their cards will be returned to them marked paid.
